Orientation Program Report

Date: 12/10/2020 - 14/10/2020

Venue: Online (Zoom platform)

Conducted by: Dr. Bharti Rathod (Principal) and College Staff

Overview:

The orientation program for the 2020 batch commenced on October 12, 2020, and spanned over three days. The program was conducted entirely online due to the prevailing circumstances, with sessions held via the Zoom meeting platform. The aim of the orientation was to acquaint the incoming students with various aspects of the academic curriculum, faculty members, and the code of conduct expected within the institution.

Day 1: October 12, 2020

The first day of the orientation program focused on introducing the faculty and students, providing an overview of the curriculum, and familiarizing the attendees with the Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) and Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs). Additionally, the session covered the college's code of conduct, outlining the behavioral expectations of the students.

Day 2: October 13, 2020

The second day commenced with an online session dedicated to providing an overview of Mandatory Papers 1 and 2. These sessions were crucial in helping students understand the core subjects and the requirements associated with them.

Faculty members provided insights into the syllabus, learning objectives, and assessment methods for these papers, ensuring students were well-prepared for their academic journey.

Day 3: October 14, 2020

Day 3 of the orientation program, October 14, 2020, marked the culmination with a comprehensive overview of Methods 1 and 2. These sessions were pivotal, offering students insights into the methodologies and approaches crucial for their academic journey. Faculty members meticulously elucidated various research methods, study techniques, and analytical frameworks, ensuring students were well-equipped for their coursework.

Moreover, alumni, bringing with them a wealth of experience, shared their insights with the incoming students. Their past experiences served as invaluable lessons, offering practical wisdom and inspiration. By connecting with alumni, freshers gained a deeper understanding of how to navigate academic challenges and leverage opportunities effectively.

The blend of theoretical knowledge from faculty and practical wisdom from alumni provided a well-rounded orientation experience, setting a strong foundation for the academic endeavors ahead.

Conclusion:

The orientation program for the 2020 batch concluded successfully under the guidance of Dr. Bharti Rathod, the Principal, and with the active participation of all staff members. The online format ensured accessibility and safety amid the ongoing circumstances, while still providing comprehensive insights into the academic journey awaiting the incoming students.
