Guide lines for Internship Programme

The new Approach-making of prospective India is based on only the quality of Educationm and its attention has to give by Teachers. For this it is necessary that our teachers may with educational conceit and well-equipped with professional skills. The responcibility to prepare such teachers is of Teacher training institutions. The National Education Policy (1986) has advocated to lift education more to experimental base education, and for this, it is suggested the Internship Programme. To make education more experimental, NCTE has made the teacher training course for Two years, and during this two years, Six months has been allotted for Internship Programme. Thus, There is no option to provide intensive scholastic experiences for trainees except Internship Programme.

■ Meaning of Internship :-

- Internship means concrete teaching work.
- Internship means localize teaching work.
- Internship means a programme to provide more intensive scholastic experiences for trainee teachers.
- Internship means to provide solidest work experiences in real enviorenment to trainee by which the trainee can get necessary abilities, skills and self confodence to execute his/her professional duty satisfactorily.

■ Objectives :-

- To develop the professional abilities of trainees.
- To provide the opportunity for real scholastic experiences.
- To develop teaching skills for trainees' subject content.
- To develop different abilities for proper uses of teaching methods and techniques.
- To get the experiences for planning and applications of co-curricular ctivities.
- To get the understanding of administrative work.
- To develop the characteristic like punctuality, co-operation, assiduity, transcendental and self-confidence.
- To use the experience of school principal and teachers in trainees' wrought.
